

Preliminary Task 5: Preparing to Translate

Before Session 5, you are asked to think about the following questions. These will be discussed in the session.

To what extent is translating from music similar to or different from conventional interlingual translation? Is the process essentially the same, or is it qualitatively different? If so, why/how?